YMCA of Greater Miami Hosts Dedication Ceremony and Community Event at North Pointe Community Center in North Dade

Sat, Feb. 26th at 11 am

Event will commemorate the new community center that will provide programs focusing on youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility

WHAT: The YMCA of Greater Miami hosts the dedication of the North Pointe Community Center with a free family event. The Saturday morning will be filled with activities for everyone with bounce house and inflatable slide and face painter for the kids, health demonstrations and testings, and information on upcoming activities at the new Y center opening in the Spring. Food and beverages including chicken wings will be provided by Sports Grill.

Opening in the upcoming months, the new community center will feature a meeting room, a multipurpose room, group fitness classes, swimming pool and kids splash area, along with services and activities to help area residents to learn, grow, and thrive.

For that day only, the Y will waive the joining fee for people and families that sign up that day (a savings of $50 for individuals and $80 for families).
